

BISHOP PETERKIN

Preached at the St. Luke's Parish House Last Evening.

CHRIST IN OUR EVERY-DAY LIFE

Was the Subject of His Eloquent Discourse, Listened to by a Very Large Congregation—Christ Should be Ever-present—With Many His Influence is Felt On But One Day of the Week—At St. Matthew's and St. Paul's—Interesting Services at the Fourth Street Church.

Yesterday unusually large congregations attended the services at the two Episcopal churches, St. Matthew's and St. Luke's, and St. Paul's at Elm Grove was crowded in the afternoon. The visit to Wheeling of the presiding bishop of the West Virginia diocese, Right Rev. George W. Peterkin, of Parkersburg, was the cause. In the morning he preached to a crowded church at St. Matthew's, in the afternoon at St. Paul's in Elm Grove, and in the evening to a large audience at the St. Luke's parish house, on the Island.

The bishop took as his text at the evening service the seventh verse of the second chapter of St. Luke, and spoke of the importance of not divorcing thoughts of God from every day life. There must be some object in life, of the heart or mind; often unworthy or degrading, such as the pursuit of pleasure. To one who possesses a true conception of human nature this life is not possible. Other objects are the pursuit of wealth and power. These passions are necessarily absorbing and crowd to the wall all of the higher and ennobling enthusiasm for humanity as well as love for Christ the Master. There is no room for Him; the mind and heart are preoccupied.

Other objects prevail to shut out Christ that are not inherently unworthy, such as the usual legitimate business of life and from this there is great danger. Christ is often crowded out of men's lives when they do not know or realize it. The advice of St. Paul should be taken—whatever ye do, do for the glory of God. There should always be room for Christ, in our homes, our offices, our workshops. The trouble is that we hold off Christ at too great a distance and after years at creeds we sometimes know nothing at all of Jesus Christ. We should want him to dwell with us in our lives, He should never be away from us.

We should feel a sense of personal obligation for the care that Christ takes of us. We should remember that He died to redeem us. If we can once get the constant thought of Him in our minds and hearts, even though the cares of business surround, He will never leave us.

The speaker said that there should be no line drawn between our secular and religious lives; they must be one and the same. Christ should be ever present with us. There is but one place for Him—the central one. Christ desires to draw us to Himself, and His presence should be felt and His influence should be supreme at all times.

Christ wants you to enjoy this world, but you must make room in your lives for Christ and his blessed influence, where he will shine in your every-day lives. He closed with a warning against the association of God only with the religious life. Room should be made for Him in our lives at all times and everywhere. Then we can walk before Him with a perfect heart and He will dwell with us, and where he dwells there is life and peace.

Bishop Peterkin closed his sermon with an appeal for the educational society of the church, money being needed for the support of the seminary at Alexandria, Va., in which this diocese is directly interested. The contributions were generous.

At St. Matthew's church last evening the vested choir rendered a Christmas carol service. The programme was as follows:

Processional Hymn.
Carols.
"The Anthem of Peterkin".....Rainbow
"Christmas Morn".....Mackenzie
"Across the Desert Sands by Night".....Martin
"Shepherds, Shake off your Drowsy Sleep".....Stainer
Sole by Mrs. Williams.
"Rejoice Greatly".....Handel
Offertory Anthem.
"O, Sing to God".....Gounod
Recessional Hymn.
There was a large congregation present.

AT FOURTH STREET.

A Special Service for the Boys held last Evening.

At the Fourth street M. E. church last evening there was a novel special service, it being directed especially to the boys, for whom seats were reserved in front of the pulpit, and admission to these seats was by invitation tickets. The church was packed, a large part of the congregation being made up of boys. The choir sang an anthem, "Messiah is King," from the Christmas programme, after which Rev. Dr. Riker read passages of an appropriate character from I Samuel and Galatians. The female trio, "Glory to God," sung on Christmas, was given as an offertory, and after a hymn Dr. Riker preached a sermon to the boys, his theme being "The Outlook and the Effort," and his text James 3, 14. The boys were very attentive auditors, and the pastor talked in a way which they could all understand. The music was an especially attractive feature.

Wilfred Clarke as "Major Wellington De Boots."

The Times, Philadelphia, May 29, 1894, says: "The opening night of the last week at Mr. Holland's pretty play house was celebrated by the popular actor Wilfred Clarke in 'A Widow Hunt.' The large audience present gave him a rousing reception, and he in turn kept them laughing all the evening with his splendid efforts. This famous comedy needs no introduction and it is enough to say that it was fully appreciated." Mr. Clarke will be at the Wheeling Opera House New Year's matinee and night and Wednesday night.

"Paul Kaurar" coming.

The most eventful production of spectacular plays this season will be that of the new "Paul Kaurar," rewritten by the late renowned author, Steele Mackaye, and which will be produced by Manager Eugene Robinson, at the Opera House next Friday night on a scale of magnificence never equalled in this country. Among the new and novel effects will be the French Grenadier quartette, who, during the action of the play, will render all the popular war songs made famous in this country by Paulons, the celebrated French baritone.

THOUSANDS of cases of rheumatism have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This is abundant reason for belief that it will cure you.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THE GRAND this evening—"A Flag of Truce."

The cold snap has been hard on the telegraph and telephone wires.

A FARMERS' institute will be held at St. Clairsville January 3 and 4.

THE last meeting of the present board of county commissioners will be held to-day.

A PORTION of the Etta-Standard mill will go on to-day after a shut-down of one week.

It is said that oil men will put down a test well on the Isaac Lloyd farm, two miles west of Mt. Pleasant.

THE West Virginia Glass Works are getting ready to resume. They have some nice orders for their new goods and many inquiries.

THERE were only three common cases in the police court Saturday morning, and none in the evening. James Dugan and Lou Dittman were locked up yesterday as plain drunks.

SATURDAY afternoon and evening next the attraction at the Opera House will be Staton's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company, and the house is morally sure to be packed on both occasions.

LAST evening the Evans and Githens girls, who were let go Saturday for lack of prosecution, were arrested again, their fathers having come up from Bel-air and asked that they be detained.

ON Saturday the sale of the George Sawtell farm, on the Cherry Hill road, was postponed for two weeks, when it will be offered at public sale by J. C. Hervey, auctioneer, at the court house door.

VAN KUREN's new Market street restaurant, in the room lately occupied by Weir, the latter, was opened Saturday, and is a first-class establishment, in fact, one of the finest in the city, as well as one of the best arranged.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

G. W. Lawrence, of Sistersville, is a McLure arrival.

H. P. Meyers and wife, of Sistersville, are guests at the Stamm.

"The Flag of Truce" company registered at the Windsor last night.

F. R. Jennings, a Sistersville oil operator, registered at the Windsor yesterday.

T. A. Becker and O. S. Reckard, of Newport, Ohio, are guests at the Windsor.

A. W. Prichard and A. L. Prichard, well known Mannington people, are at the Windsor.

Wilfred Clarke figures on the McLure register. He appears here to-night in "Tit for Tat."

F. M. Kiser, F. P. Fetzer and M. L. Benedine, of Mannington, figure on the register at the Stamm.

Mr. George Viney, of East Liverpool, is the guest of his friend, James Larkin, of the Buffet, for a few days.

J. J. Splain, of Pittsburgh, and F. N. Barnardall, of Bradford, are a pair of Pennsylvania oil magnates at the McLure.

Mr. Henry May, of Buffalo, N. Y., was here showing the 1895 line of Queen City bicycles, sold here by George W. Johnson's Sons.

Mrs. J. H. Morrison and Miss Alice Flanagan, of Wilsonburg, W. Va., are the guests of Mrs. R. W. B. Barger, on Fourteenth street, for a few days.

D. C. Murdock, of Parkersburg; George E. Work, John M. Ziegler and J. W. Boyers, of Sistersville; O. E. Emrick, of Ravenswood; J. McCoy, of Morgantown, and Charles Barrows, of Mannington, are at the Behler.

THE INTELLIGENCER is in receipt of a very neatly printed, cordial New Year's greeting from Rev. S. B. Barnitz, of Des Moines, Iowa, formerly of this city, now Western Secretary of the English Lutheran board of home missions.

Hon. John B. Floyd, of Charleston, one of the members of the Kanawha county legislative delegation, was in the city on Saturday and remained over Sunday. Mr. Floyd was met by a large number of the local Republican leaders yesterday at the McLure, where he is staying.

A. H. Bryant, of St. Louis, who sells bicycles and a thousand and other things, from a paper of tacks to a buggy, for the Simmons Hardware company, of St. Louis, is here with his 1895 samples, including a round dozen of wheels, the largest line of samples carried in the United States.

Captain T. J. Hinde, one of the oldest and most popular of the Ohio River railroad's passenger conductors, returned last evening from Sandusky, Ohio, where he spent the holiday week with relatives and friends. The captain says that the snow storm here is as nothing compared to what was experienced in Northern Ohio, there being a fall of several feet there.

A Calendar Worth Having.

Almost everyone has use for a calendar, and by the same token, they ought to have one that is of some use. A calendar that you have to study or "set" has little excuse for existence.

The one we like best of all is that published by N. W. Ayer & Son, the Newspaper Advertising Agents of Philadelphia.

The handsome copy for 1895 carries on its seal their famous motto, "Keep Everlastingly At It Brings Success," which will alone each day be worth to all who use it far more than the price of the calendar. The size is generous, and the work a beautiful specimen of the printers' art. Each day, as is becoming to such an important slice of time, is printed large enough to be read across a room. Then too, the matter on the flap, deals with a subject in which there is a growing general interest.

That the demand for this calendar increases each year, we can easily understand, for we do not believe that anyone who has spent one year in company with it, will be willing to spend another without it. The price is 25 cents, delivered everywhere post paid, and in perfect condition.

That oily and rough skin cured, and the face and hands beautified by Johnson's Oriental Soap; medicated and highly perfumed. Charles R. Goetz and W. W. Irwin.

THERE is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Bazzard, of West Montecary, Clarion Co., Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Chas. R. Goetz, Wm. Irwin, John Klari, Wm. E. Williams, C. Menckemeller, Wm. H. Hague, H. C. Stewart, A. E. Scheele, J. Coleman, C. Schnepf, Wm. Menckemeller, Wheeling, W. Va.; Bowie & Co., Bridgeport; B. F. Peabody & Son, Benwood.

THE WINTRY WEATHER.

Sleighs are Much in Demand While it Continues.

A CONSTANT PROCESSION OF THEM

Along the Pike Saturday and Yesterday—Skating on the River and Creeks also Very Popular—The Ice Dealers Begin to Harvest the Crop while it Lasts.

The old-fashioned winter has lasted pretty well, and last night another snow set in, which indicated that the snow fall might equal in the aggregate that of 1883-84. The sleighing is something rarely fine for this locality. Saturday and yesterday apparently every available sleigh in the town or county was out, and there was almost a steady procession of cutters and sleds on all the good roads. A large number of parties were out taking "straw rides" in big sleds, and everybody was apparently disposed to make the most of the sport while it lasted.

Liverymen charge $2 an hour, generally, for a single hour for a one-horse sleigh, and $3 an hour after the first hour. A two-horse, double-seated sleigh can be hired for $2 an hour. These prices are cut often, too. They seem a little high, but when it is reflected that a liveryman's investment in this line lies idle on an average at least eleven months out of the year, and that a horse drawing a sleigh is pretty sure to be more or less abused, they are not so much beyond reason. It is doubtful if it pays to keep sleighs for hire. It certainly does not for use, and there are a number of stylish cutters for sale at remarkably low figures.

More skating was done on the river by Martin's Ferry people on Saturday than for many a day. Hundreds were out again yesterday. One Wheeling boy broke through the ice near the Buekeye glass works on Saturday. He got out all right. On all the creeks, too, there were numerous skaters yesterday. All the way up Wheeling creek the stream was lined, except at two or three places where ice-cutting has already begun. The ice is very firm and about six inches thick, and for ordinary cooling purposes will be all that could be desired. A great deal of it has already been stored, and much more will be if the cold snap continues a day or two longer.

So far the coasting has not been good, although a number of young people were persistently at it Saturday and yesterday. The snow is too loose and the tracks too heavy to get up any speed, and until there is a thaw or two, followed by freezing weather, there will be no track to speak of, even on the steepest streets.

AFTER THE STOLEN MONEY.

Shoe and Leather Bank Plans—Efforts to Obtain Evidence to Recover from the Baker Estate.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—James L. Bishop, counsel for the Shoe and Leather Bank, has for several days been visiting the Ludlow street jail, where, with assistance of one of the bank's bookkeepers and Samuel C. Seely, a minute examination of the bank's books is being made, with the view of obtaining evidence on which some of the stolen money can be recovered from the Baker estate.

In addition to helping in straightening out the accounts by correcting the false entries, Seely has practically made a deposition giving the details of his own crime and of Baker's complicity.

The fact has been developed that Baker did not deposit a cent in the bank during the last three years, while he drew out thousands, and the whole amount of his deposits since the stealing began did not exceed $5,000.

The story that Seely had made a statement implicating a number of other persons was denied by every one interested yesterday. Seely will be taken to the Kings county penitentiary on next Wednesday.

FATHER AND SON

Cremated in Their House—The Former While Trying to Save the Latter.

NEWAYGO, MICH., Dec. 30.—Charles White and his six-year-old son were cremated by the burning of their dwelling at 12 o'clock this morning. White was awakened by his wife and ran up stairs, where four children were sleeping. Three made their escape, but, before the father could find the fourth, the stairway was in flames. He knocked a board off the end of the house, but, before he could get out, was overcome with heat and smoke. His wife realized his danger and called him repeatedly, but he would not sacrifice his son's life to save his own.

Mrs. Annie Wright, Piedmont, Alabama.

They Said She Would Die

But Hood's Sarsaparilla Proved Its Merit.

The following statement will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Wright all over Alabama and Georgia. He was for ten years a locomotive engineer, and is now machinist for the Coosa Manufacturing Co.:

"I know the good there is in Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it has been proved in the case of my wife. In the summer of 1892, she was taken ill with malarial fever, which the physicians succeeded in breaking up. But then followed a severe illness like drowsy. She seemed to be growing worse every day, and our friends said:

She Would Surely Die.

I was induced to have her take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which was followed by the best results. She has now taken eight bottles and has used six boxes of Hood's Pills, and is in perfect health, as well and hearty as ever. We thank God for such a valuable medicine as Hood's Sarsaparilla." H. A. WRIGHT, Piedmont, Ala.
